2015
Summer Day Camps

Boott Camp

July 6-10
July 27-31

Boys and Girls
ages 8-12
(Entering
Grades 3-7) Build and test your own canal system, weave cloth on a four-harness loom, explore the historic Boott Mills and boardinghouse, visit an operating factory weave room, ride a trolley, take a boat trip on the Merrimack River, play games, and create works of art. Explore the roots of the American Industrial Revolution and find out how this amazing time in history still affects the way we live today!

Wonders of Water

July 20-24

Boys and Girls
ages 8-12
(Entering
Grades 3-7) Water is very important to the city of Lowell. Explore Lowell's awesome waterways aboard a National Park Service boat, learn about water by doing wacky experiments, build a working power canal system, and investigate the creatures that call water home. Discover the amazing connections between science and history in the "Venice of America."

National Park Adventures

July 13-17
August 10-14

Boys and Girls
ages 10-14
(Entering
Grades 5-9) Visit four National Parks in Massachusetts and actively learn about 400 years of American history. Join a boat tour of Lowell's historic canal system. Take part in a colonial muster on Concord's Battle Road. Explore the first ironworks in Massachusetts colony and discover some special places that are part of Boston's hidden history.

Eco-Explorers

July 20-24

Boys and Girls
ages 10-14
(Entering
Grades 5-9) Lowell may be a city, but nature can still be found here! Spend a week with other adventurers as we investigate the natural areas in Lowell and beyond. Go canoeing on a lazy river, take an urban nature hike, and have fun learning skills and facts about the world outside our windows.

Boott Camp: Discovery

August 3-7

Boys and Girls
ages 10-14
(Entering
Grades 5-9) Explore "what ifs," "whys," and "hows" through crafts, field trips, games, and "eggs"periments that take a step beyond the ordinary. Use everyday objects to build (and sometimes demolish!) something ... all in the name of adventure. Discover new twists on Lowell's stories with a fresh look at popular hands-on activities. Journey upriver past the historic Pawtucket Dam to the boathouse where fun and challenges await you.

Summer Camp Staff

Summer camp programs are designed and staffed by professional educators from the University of Massachusetts Lowell and Lowell National Historical Park. We have at least one staff member for each 8 to 10 children. Safety is always our first concern!

Campers bring a brown-bag lunch.
Snacks provided. All campers receive camp T-shirts.

Summer camps run
Monday through Friday
from 8:30 am to 3 pm.

The Tsongas Industrial History Center

The Tsongas Industrial History Center, located in the Boott Cotton Mills, 115 John Street, Lowell, Massachusetts, is an education partnership between the University of Massachusetts Lowell Graduate School of Education and the National Park Service at Lowell National Historical Park. The Center facilitates hands-on learning of industrial history and related science and engineering content through on- and off-site educational programs for nearly 60,000 students and teachers annually.

The National Park Service preserves, protects, and interprets America's heritage. Lowell National Historical Park tells the story of America's first planned industrial city and the industrial revolution. The park includes mill complexes, a power canal system, gatehouses, and worker housing. The park is open to visitors throughout the year.

Space is limited. Sign up early.
Pre-registration required.
